The Major Program
Comparative Literature is a dynamic major whose own self-definition is constantly shifting. Once mostly limited to the study of Western European literature and its Greco-Roman classical past, today Comparative Literature has become a global interdisciplinary study of literature in original languages and other media (including cinema, television, fine arts, and opera, for example). Thus, we can define Comparative Literature as the study of literature and culture across national boundaries and throughout historical time.

The Program. Both the major and the minor programs in Comparative Literature allow students to combine courses in one or more national literatures departments with courses in Comparative Literature. The introductory course sequence [COM 1 through
