PLASTIC SURGERY (PSU)

School of Medicine

PSU 460 — Clinical Plastic Surgery Elective (1-18 units)
Course Description: Total involvement in patient care involving surgical preparation, treatment, operative care, and follow-up. Developing and understanding reconstruction and aesthetic plastic surgery. Microvascular surgery included. Student rotation.
Prerequisite(s): SUR 430; and consent of instructor; third- or fourth-year medical students.
Learning Activities: Clinical Activity.
Grade Mode: Honors/Pass/Fail.