

ECONOMICS, MINOR

College of Letters & Science

Economics is the study of how individuals, organizations, and societies choose among alternative uses of resources and how these resources are turned into the things people want.

Course Limits

Students are expected to take ECN 100A, ECN 100B, and ECN 101 at UC Davis.

Except under extraordinary circumstances, not more than two economics courses should be taken in any one quarter. In special cases, the department will accept a limited number of related upper division courses from other departments in satisfaction of the economics upper division course requirements. Approval from a departmental advisor is required in all such cases.

Preparatory Subject Matter

Preparatory Subject Matter Subtotal – 20-24 units

- (ECN 001A or ECN 001AV or ECN 001AY) or (ECN 001B or ECN 001BV) – 8 units
