

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT, DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences

Graduate Study

The interdisciplinary and interdepartmental Graduate Group in Human Development offers a program of study leading to the Ph.D. degree. The program provides education and training in lifespan study of human development, with a balance of emphasis on biological, cognitive, and socio-emotional development in context. Recipients of the degree will be prepared to teach, conduct research, and actively engage in public service in the field of human development.

Applicants seeking admissions and fellowships consideration must submit all materials by our priority deadline of December 15. The final admissions deadline is March 1. For more details, see Human Development Graduate Group (<http://humandevlopment.ucdavis.edu/>).
