

COMMUNITY NUTRITION, MINOR

College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences

The Department of Nutrition offers three minor programs open to students majoring in other disciplines who wish to complement their study programs with a concentration in the area of food and nutrition.

Minor Advisor

Advising for the minor and course offerings is located in the Nutrition Academic Advising Center (<https://nutrition.ucdavis.edu/academics/undergrad/advising/>) in 3202 Meyer Hall; 530-752-2512; 530-752-7094.

Note: If the student's major program requires the same course in biochemistry and physiology, only one of the courses may duplicate credit toward the minor. The program lists replacement courses below which can be used to fulfill the minimum unit requirement.
