INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences

International Agricultural Development is an interdisciplinary major in the Plant Sciences department.

Faculty

Includes members from various departments across colleges.

Master Advisor

Advising for the major is located in 1244 Plant & Environmental Sciences; 530-752-4839.

A. Crump in 3045 Wickson Hall (Plant Sciences Department)

Foreign Language Requirement

Students must complete three sequenced quarters (15 units) of courses in one foreign language or its equivalent. Passing a foreign language proficiency examination, a score of 5, 4, or 3 on a foreign language Advanced Placement examination (except Latin), or a score of 550 on the SATII: Subject Test will also satisfy this requirement.

Foreign Language Requirement Subtotal | 0-15 |

Internship Requirement

Students must complete at least 4 units of internship. Internships can be chosen in consultation with an advisor. Internship requirement waived for students enrolled in the UC Education Abroad Program.
