

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

UC Davis is the home of the Aggies (<https://ucdavisaggies.com/>). We sponsor 25 NCAA Division I sports spreading the UC Davis brand across the country as student-athletes compete for conference and national championships. Athletics affords students the opportunity to enjoy fun, free entertainment, meet new people, and show their Aggie Pride while cheering our teams to victory. Tens of thousands of Aggies attend games each year, taking part in traditions such as storming the field before their first football game or collecting our custom giveaways. Games are also broadcast on ESPN+, meaning sports fans across the globe are exposed to all this great University has to offer. Learn more (<https://www.ucdavis.edu/campus-life/athletics-sports/>) about how to get involved and show your school spirit.
