

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

---

UC Davis is the home of the Aggies (<https://ucdavisaggies.com/>). We sponsor 25 NCAA Division I sports spreading the UC Davis brand across the country as student-athletes compete for conference and national championships. Athletics affords many opportunities for student engagement. Tens of thousands of students come to games to spend time with friends, enjoy the many give-aways such as t-shirts or free pizza as well as check some key traditions off their bucket list such as storming the football field prior to the first game of the season. Learn more (<https://www.ucdavis.edu/campus-life/athletics-sports/>) about how to get involved and show your school spirit.
