

LIVING AT DAVIS

---

On-Campus Housing

Student Housing & Dining Services (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/>)

UC Davis students who live on campus benefit from being close to classes and study opportunities, campus dining (<http://dining.ucdavis.edu/>), and campus life (<https://www.ucdavis.edu/campus-life/>). They also tend to do better academically and are more involved in campus (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/value/>).

All incoming fall quarter freshmen and the first 1000 transfer students who apply are guaranteed housing (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/guaranteed-housing/>) in Student Housing, provided they meet eligibility requirements and all Student Housing and university deadlines.

Student Housing also has a limited number of housing options for families (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/family-housing/>) and graduate students (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/graduate-and-professional-housing/>).

All other students should contact Student Housing to inquire about their housing options.

For more information about housing, see the following:

- Residence Halls (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/residence-halls/>)
- Apartments (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/apartments/>)
- Capital Projects (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/capital-projects/>)

Off-Campus Housing

The majority of UC Davis students live off campus. There are many apartments for rent in the City of Davis, from one-person studio apartments to five- or six-person suites. Townhouses, duplexes and houses throughout the city are also available for student rental.

Associated Students, University of California, Davis (ASUCD (<https://asucd.ucdavis.edu/>)) maintains a list of available community housing (<https://chl.ucdavis.edu/>) and, early every year, hosts Housing Day (<https://housing.ucdavis.edu/returning-students-program/>), an event that brings dozens of local housing managers to campus to introduce their communities to UC Davis students.