

ENTRY LEVEL WRITING REQUIREMENT (ELWR)

The Entry Level Writing Requirement (ELWR) is a University of California requirement. Every first-year student in the UC system must demonstrate their college-level proficiency in writing by fulfilling the ELWR. University-level writing requires students to read carefully, analyze readings with understanding, and draw conclusions about what is read. For more information, see Entry Level Writing Requirement (<https://elw.ucdavis.edu>).

Students must fulfill ELWR by the end of their third quarter of enrollment; students who do not fulfill ELWR by the end of their third quarter of enrollment face disenrollment from the university.

Before enrolling at UC Davis, students can fulfill ELWR two ways:

- Earning at least one threshold score on one of the following exams:
 - 30 or better on the ACT, English Language Arts.
 - 63 or better on the ACT English exam + the ACT Reading exam.
 - 680 or better on the SAT, Evidence-Based Reading and Writing.
 - 3 or higher on AP English Language and Composition or AP English Literature and Composition.
 - 5 or higher on Higher Level IB English A: Literature or Higher Level IB English A: Language and Literature.
