

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENT

To receive a bachelor's degree, a student must obtain twice as many grade points as units (a 2.000 GPA) for all courses they have attempted in the university. Each college has specific requirements, as well; see College Requirements:

- Agricultural & Environmental Sciences (<https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/undergraduate-education/college-degree-requirements/agricultural-environmental-sciences/>)
- Biological Sciences (<https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/undergraduate-education/college-degree-requirements/biological-sciences/>)
- Engineering (<https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/undergraduate-education/college-degree-requirements/engineering/>)
- Letters & Science (<https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/undergraduate-education/college-degree-requirements/letters-science/>)

For more information on calculating GPAs, see Calculate Your Grade Point Average (GPA) (<https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/academic-information-policies-regulations/grades-grading/>).